IT'S FUN!

HIGHER SCORES.

Students with 4 years or more of arts and music study scored 29 points higher on reading, 22 points higher on math and 29 points higher on writing sections of the SAT College Board test. (College Board SAT, 2008 College-Bound Seniors: Total Group Profile Report)

BETTER SKILLS. Arts-based learning is known to promote collaboration, creative problem solving, and the ability to apply learning across different disciplines. (Neuroeducation: Learning, Arts, and the Brain. Dana Press, 2009)

MORE GRADUATES.

Schools that have music programs have higher graduation rates than those without programs (90.2% as compared to 72.9%). (Harris Interactive survey of high school principals, Spring 2006)

SELF-ESTEEM. There is a high relationship between interest in school music and high self-perception, high cognitive competence scores and general self-esteem. COSTA-GIOMI, E., "THE MCGILL PIANO PROJECT," 1998
